

Downtown Justice Center - Phoenix, Arizona.

Description of Project

New 5 story, 254,300-sq.-ft. courthouse building to consolidate five courtrooms and nine county departments currently housed in multiple downtown buildings for Maricopa County. The project is a Design Build project with DL Withers Construction. Specifications consulting to DFDG, Phoenix, AZ

The project utilizes a steel frame, concrete block, EIFS, foam roofing, blue insulated glass and ground concrete floors.

Benefits Provided:

The project was designed to meet or exceed a variety of different LEED components, including water reduction, efficient heating and cooling, recycled construction waste and building materials and ample day lighting.

Architect: DFDG, Phoenix, AZ.

LEED CERTIFICATION ACHIEVED: .LEED-NC v2.0/2.1 Certified Rating August 8, 2007